PREFACE.

ORIGINALLY intended solely for the members of the Unitas Fratrum (commonly styled the Moravian Church) and still bearing this branch of Christ's Church chiefly in mind in the texts selected for the ecclesiastical and denominational year, the use of THE TEXT BOOK has spread far beyond denominational bounds. The little volume, containing for each day a "watch-word"—a passage drawn from the Old Testament—and a "doctrinal text"—a passage selected from the New Testament—each Scripture passage with an appropriate collect—has become a powerful bond which unites into one Christian family brethren and sisters of various languages, races and religious names. The chosen texts for the day, being read before the early morning meal, or in connection with private or family devotion, serve to unite thousands of the children of God into one Spirit, to strengthen the feeling that they are one in the same Lord, Who has redeemed them with His blood, and to cause them to look forward to the great day when all that still causes separation here will be removed, and there shall be, under one Shepherd, only one Flock, joining in the same song of praise to God and the Lamb That was slain!

Since the year 1731 this annual compilation has appeared in print. The total number of copies each year is upwards of 156,000, distributed as follows:—Germany, 128,000, Great Britain, 6,000; the United States, 5,000 (English and German); while 17,000 copies, some of them, however, without hymns, are printed in French, Dutch, Esthonian, Finnish, Swedish, Danish, Bohemian, Italian, Negro-English (Surinam) and Eskimo.

SUGGESTIONS

FOR

Family or Private Prayer.

Motto: Matt. 18:19; and John 17:20, 21.

SUNDAY.—THE CHURCH OF CHRIST.—Her purity and peace, unity and power. For the congregation to which we belong, and with which we worship to-day. For the right observance of the LORD'S DAY, and the blessing of God upon all Sunday-schools.

"Rule and lead Thy Holy Christian Church. Unite all the Children of God in one spirit."

MONDAY.—CHRISTIAN MISSIONS.—For all Missionary Societies and Agencies; for our own Foreign Missions in particular; for our own Missionary Brethren and Sisters; that more zeal and devotedness may be aroused at home on behalf of the Mission cause; that young men may be aroused to offer themselves with a true Missionary spirit for the Lord's work; and that all may learn the duty and privilege of giving.

"Send faithful laborers into Thy harvest."

TUESDAY.—THE FAMILY AND THE SCHOOL.—For our own households. For the Christian education of the young, and that our children may be early led to give themselves to Christ. For our own Schools in particular, and that teachers may be deeply impressed with the duty and privilege of their office to lead the little ones to Jesus; that in all things we may be enabled to "keep ourselves unspotted from the world."

"From the influence of the spirit of this world, preserve us, gracious Lord and God. Let our children be brought up in Thy nurture and admonition."

WEDNESDAY.—OUR FRIENDS AND RELATIVES, our neighbors and all with whom we have to do in the Church, in business, or in work; especially for those in affliction, the aged, sick, poor, desolate, and distressed; for prisoners or those on journeys, or in peril.

"By Thy griefs and sorrows, by Thy divine presence, bless and comfort them, gracious Lord and God."

THURSDAY.—OUR COUNTRY.—That it may become more truly a Christian country, that God may guide and protect all that are in authority; that commerce and industry may be consecrated to the service and glory of Christ; that the Spirit of Christ may guide and help the Bible and Tract Societies and all agencies for the good of the people. We pray especially for a blessing upon our Home Mission work in all its branches.

"Give prosperity, O God, to this land, and salvation to all its people."

FRIDAY.—OUR OWN CHURCH.—For her purity, spirituality and activity; her adherence to the doctrine of the Cross, and the sole rule and Headship of Christ. For our Church authorities. For candidates for the Ministry, that they may be led to devote themselves wholly, and with a single eye to Christ and His service. For an intelligent interest in the Church's welfare and work; and for the promotion amongst us, and by us, of that unity of the Brethren, which is the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

"Supply all the wants of Thy people."

"Preserve us from indifference to Thy merits and death," and "manifest Thyself to us."

SATURDAY.—FOR MINISTERS, as preachers of Christ and pastors of the flocks. For their growth in grace and in the knowledge of Christ; and their prudence, zeal and boldness as His servants; and especially in their preparation for the morrow, that they may "study to show themselves approved unto God, workmen that need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth, prepared unto every good work."

"Give spirit and power to preach Thy Word."

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The stanzas found in this Text Book are taken from the Church Hymnal, and the Offices of Worship and Hymns (the latter being indicated by the letters O. W.), both being publications of the American Province of the Moravian Church.

Moravian Church in the United States and Canada.

Corrected to October, 1913.

N. B.—The names marked with an asterisk are those of Retired Ministers, whether receiving pension or not. The letters D., P., or Ep., placed after the name, signify "Deacon," "Presbyter," or "Episcopus," i. e., Bishop. The year number placed before the name is the date of ordination as a Deacon.

The large majority of these ministers are graduates of The Moravian College and Theological Seminary at Bethlehem, Pa., and as such hold the earned scholastic degree of B. A. [Bachelor of Arts] or B. D. [Bachelor of Divinity] or both, so these degrees are not indicated. The postgraduate earned degrees of M. A. [Master of Arts] and Ph. D. [Doctor of Philosophy] and the honorary degrees D. D. [Doctor of Divinity] and L. H. D. [Doctor of the more Humane Letters] are indicated by the usual initials after the name.
